

Cas Haley Bio

Cas Haley - You may remember Cas Haley from his performance of the Police's "Walking on the Moon" on NBC's summertime hit series, "America's Got Talent" -- where he was praised for singing the song "better than Sting."

Haley captivated the world with his unique Reggae-infused sound and soft heart on his way to becoming the show's eventual runner-up.

Following the release of his self-titled album, which debuted #1 on the Reggae charts, Cas now hits the road with the support of his full band, Woodbelly, for his first national headlining tour.
